APPLICATION METHODS

Limewash is traditionally applied using a brush, allowing natural movement and subtle tonal variation to develop across the surface. Different brush techniques can create a range of decorative effects, from soft cloud-like textures to more expressive finishes.

APPLICATION PROCESS

- Ensure the surface is clean, dry and properly prepared.
- Apply the recommended primer where required.
- Apply two coats of Limewash using the chosen brush technique.
- Allow sufficient drying time between coats.
- The final appearance develops naturally as the finish dries.

CREATING THE FINISH

The beauty of Limewash lies in its handcrafted application. Every brush stroke contributes to a unique decorative surface, creating depth, movement and a soft mineral character that changes subtly with the light.

RESULT

A timeless mineral finish with natural texture, elegant tonal variation and a beautifully matt appearance, bringing warmth and character to contemporary interiors.
